This property delivers a clever combination of contemporary style, generous accommodation and low maintenance living. Built three years ago to an impeccable standard with stylish flair it leaves an unforgettable impression.

Upon entry to the property you are greeted with an extra wide entry and hallway, with a beautiful feature door and feature light - hallmarks of a quality built home. A theatre/media room features at the front which is an important inclusion to any modern family home.

The open plan living area is well designed with linked kitchen, dining and family rooms which all have a distinct space within the room. A large stainless steel, freestanding, 5 burner oven with a canopy range hood features in the kitchen - fit for any master chef. All the living areas are tiled and the home is fully airconditioned.

While one bedroom is at the front of the home the others are private from the living areas and all a very generous
