Timeless Queenslander

Step back in time to a home with wide enclosed verandas.

Loved and cherished by the one family for 50 plus years, this character filled home waits patiently for new owners to call her home. Having raised three children in her time and bearing the brunt of Cyclone Althea opportunities arise for this home to be renovated by new owners within the suburb of Railway Estate.

Glass louvers throughout the home allow for maximum air flow. Combined dining and kitchen, large living area are just a few qualities this home has to offer.
