This property boasts a highset Queenslander, which was originally relocated from Belgian Gardens around 30 years ago, along with a 3 bay shed on a fully fenced 3.288 ha allotment.

Conveniently located yet positioned well off the Bruce Highway and 12 minutes from major shopping centres, 2 minutes from the local primary school and just 5 minutes from the local medical centre, this home enjoys summer sea breezes all year long.

Of timber construction, the home offers of scope for future expansion. The home is original in most respects.

Selectively cleared and no close neighbour makes this property an attractive proposition for buyers seeking privacy.
